

TASConnect

Trade and Supply Chain Connect (TASConnect) is a bank agnostic supply chain finance platform providing end-to-end automation, visibility and control of the trade and supply chain ecosystems.

End-to-end Capabilities. One Platform.

Headquartered in Singapore, TASConnect is a wholly owned subsidiary of Standard Chartered Bank and incubated through SC Ventures - the Bank's innovation, fintech investment and ventures arm.

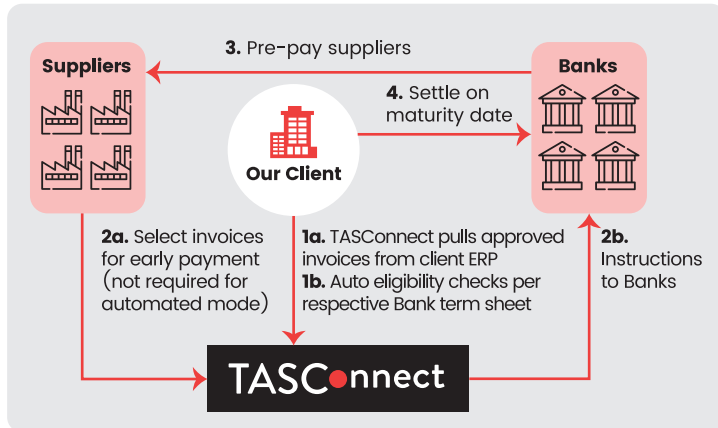

www.tasconnect.com | info@tasconnect.com

Buy Side Solutions

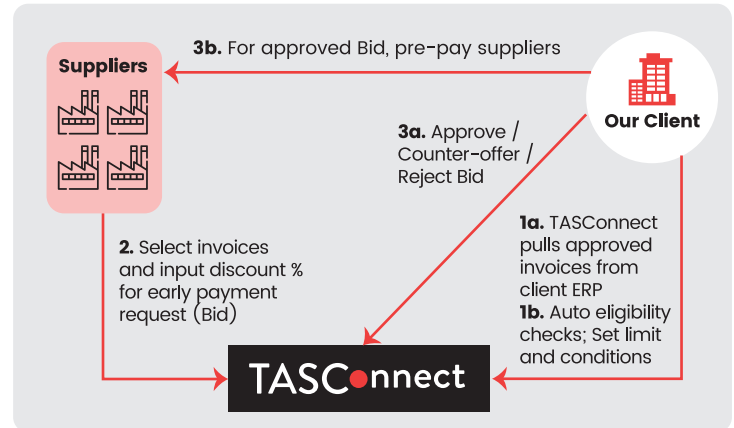

TASConnect allows you to provide liquidity across your large, medium and small suppliers in a scalable manner, which covers the financing of the end-to-end flows from purchase order to accepted sales invoice.

Case Study – Supplier Finance

- Note:
- Pre to post shipment finance can be enabled
 - Automated supplier on-barding and registration is available
 - Full visibility & transparency of programmes across suppliers, banks, buying entities

Case Study – Dynamic Discounting

- Note:
- Client has flexibility to toggle between own surplus cash and bank's funding pool
 - Workflow and rules can be customised based on Client's business requirements
 - Automated supplier on-barding and registration is available
 - Full visibility & transparency of programmes

Sell Side Solutions

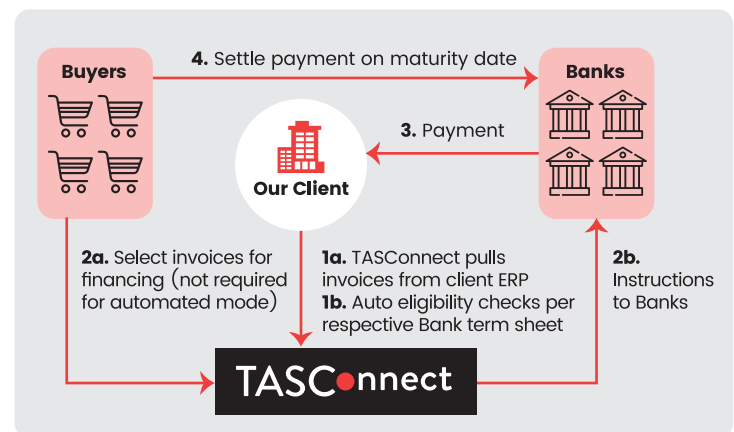

TASConnect enables you to drive maximum value for your working capital, by monetising receivables, mitigating buyer credit & payment risk, and enhancing collections & reconciliation.

Case Study – Receivables Finance

- Note:
- All deal structures can be customised on the platform
 - Digital price discovery, Maker-checker workflow, Full reconciliation and Sounding check automation can be built-in
 - Full visibility & transparency of programmes across banks, buyer entities and buyer groups

Case Study – Distributor Finance

- Note:
- Integrated payment checkout is available for Buyers to pay using multiple payment options
 - Local payment methods allow Buyers to pay locally in 70+ markets
 - Digital FX enables Buyers to pay in preferred currencies
 - Automated Buyer on-barding and registration is available
 - Full visibility & transparency of programmes and payment status

